Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Summary

On March 24, 2006, an Office Action was sent to the Applicant rejecting claims 1-25. On July 24, 2006, the Applicant responded by amending claims 1-3, 6, 8-9, 15, 20, and 22-25.

Claim Objections

The objections have been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

The rejection has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Friedland (6,449,601), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

With regard to amended claims 1-3, 6, 8-9, 15, 20, and 22-25, Friedland discloses capturing live images of the live auction and live images of the property being auctioned (col.1, lines 5-10; col.1, line 60 to col.2, line 5; and col.3, lines 53-67), storing into a server at least the live images and scenes of the property being auctioned (col.1, lines 5-10; col.1, line 60 to col.2, line 5; and col.3, lines 53-67), and wherein a transmission is compatible with at least one internet transmission protocol (col.3, lines 53-67).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed July 24, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With regard to the amendments to the claims, please reference the rejection above.

The Applicant argues that Friedland does not disclose capturing live images of a property being auctioned, storing into a server at least the live images of the property being auctioned, and transmitting over a network at least the live images of the property being auctioned. In response, Friedland discloses that use of real-time auctions comprises a good (property) or service being auctioned. The use of real-time captures live images right at the moment it is happening and transmits these images to the users, thus, the real-time images are live images. There is no clear distinction between the two types of images. With regard to the storing of the images, Friedland discloses that the live auction images are stored in a database to update the auction status screen displayed to the remote bidders (col.19, lines 25-55). Therefore, the Examiner is interpreting Friedland as disclosing storing into a server at least the live images of the property being auctioned.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
